HUFFMAN GOES SOBBING TO JAIL

CONVICTED TERRE HAUTE OF-FICIAL BREAKS DOWN AS SENTENCE TO PRISON IS PRO-NOUNCED IN ELECTION FRAUD
CASE—CHARGE AGAINST DR.
E. T. ZARING, WHO CONFESSED, IS DROPPED—TRIAL OF
MAYOR ROBERTS AND OTHERS
SET FOR MARCH 16.

ZARING IS WHITEWASHED

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 15.— William Huffman, superintendent of cemeteries and former councilman, was sentenced today to serve a term of from three to ten years in the State Prison at Michigan City and was disfranchised for ten years by Special Judge Blankenbaker in the Circuit Court. Huffman was found guilty of election fraud by a jury yesterday afternoon.

After pronouncing the sentence
Judge Blankenbaker ordered the prisoner taken into custody by Sheriff Sha and an order remanding Huffman to prison was entered. In the anteroom of the court room Huffman broke down and wept like a child. It was the first time during the long trial that Huffman had shown any emotion.

Goes to Prison at Once.

Deputy Sheriffs Shattuck and Mc-Donald then took Huffman to jail, where he requested the jailer not to admit any one. Unless some unforeseen action arises, Huffman will be taken to the Michigan City Prison within two days to begin his term.

Attorney John Hickey, one of the counsel for the defendant, announced in court that a motion for a new trial will be made and that it will be followed by a motion for the release of Huffman under bond, pending the appeal to a higher court.

Shortly after sentencing Huffman, Judge Charles M. Fortune, on motion of Special Prosecutor Joseph Roach, nonprossed the indictment charging Dr. E. T. Zaring with conspiracy to commit a felony. Zaring was one of the state's principal witnesses against Huffman.

Other Trials March 16.

The second step toward the prosecution of election fraud cases was taken today, when Special Prosecutor Roach appeared in court and filed motion for the court to set the date for trials of others accused. This action is aimed at Mayor Donn M. Roberts, Marx Myers, Gerhardt Monninger and John Roper, all indicted jointly on a general charge of conspiracy. Judge Fortune fixed the date for trial of all the accused for Monday morning,
March 16.

The Monthly Official Board meeting of the Christian Church will take place this evening at the church parlors at 7:30.

CRUSADE AGAINST MORMANS BEGUN

GREAT AUDIENCE GREETED EX-
SENATOR CANNON OF DEN-VER IN LOCUST STREET
CHURCH THURSDAY EVENING
TO HEAR A DISCUSSION OF POLYGAMY BY A FORMER RESIDENT OF UTAH.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

The mass meeting in the interest of the anti-polygamy crusade held in Locust Street Church Thursday night was one of the most largely attended gatherings that has been in Greencas-tle for years. It revealed the fact that the citizens are interested in the Mormon problem and the perils it offers to our institutions. Hon. T. T.
Moore presided with dignity and credit to himself and all his fellow citizens. Dr. H. J. Banker acted as secretary, and read two resolutions addressed, one to the President of the United States and the other to Congress, asking them to pass favorably on a resolution now before the Senate, introduced by Senator Gillette of Massachusetts, calling upon the states to ratify an amendment to the Constitution giving the Federal Government authority to deal with polygamous practices in states as it now has in territories.

When Utah was a territory the Federal Government prosecuted the Mormon leaders and compelled their humiliation, and obedience to the law.
After due repentance and solemn pledges President McKinley issued a proclamation letting 2000 of their priests free from prison and returning their properties to them. Because of like solemn promises Utah was admitted as a state. After that the Federal Courts had no further jurisdiction over them. Having complete politican control the Mormon leaders proceeded to break every pledge they had made. Consequently there can be no prosecution in a state where the Mormons have control. They now have such influence in eleven states. The only hope is to secure an amendment to the Constitution that will enable the National Government to deal with polygamy.

Dr. Martin, president of the National Reform Association of Pittsburg in a few remarks told how his organization backed by one hundred Pittsburg citizens and representatives of other states, our own Hon. Charles Fairbanks, being one, was taking up the task of spreading information and creating sentiment to bring this amendment about.

Senator Frank Cannon, the speaker of the evening, then spoke to the resolutions. He told how he had in person carried the pledges of his people to Congress. They through him their representative promised to cease the practice of polygamy, to obey the law and keep the church out of politics. By evidence entirely satisfactory he showed that the Mormon church teaches polygamy today; furthermore that it practices polygamy. Moreover that it is a traitor to the Government.
Because they its members can break the laws of the laws of the land. They declare openly that it is their purpose to bring all into subjection to themselves. Their influence in Congress is enormous now and they are strengthening it continually. When they get control of two more states it will be impossible to ratify an amendment. Now is the time to act was the plea of the senator.

The lecture was an eye opener to most of the audience. The interest was intense. When at the close of the address a vote was taken on the resolution the great crowd arose in mass to register their sentiments in favor of the proposed action. It was further asked that letters be written to our representatives and congressmen asking them to favor the resolutions when the vote is taken in their respective bodies.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Becktel, of Goshen, were here today to attend the funeral of the late Bishop Bowman. Mrs. Becktel formerly was Miss Stella Bowman, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bowman. Both Mr. and Mrs. Becktel formerly attended DePauw.

Minutes Mean Dollars IN TREATING ANIMALS

Doubtless you know the danger of delayed treatment of colic and other diseases. You also realize the wrongly applied remedies are often worse than no treatment at all. In other words, not to diagnose a disease accurately may mean fatal. Every owner should be able to recognize an ailment and give correct treatment at the first symptoms. Prompt action is the great secret of treating horses.

Minutes mean dollars. Of course proper treatment is a necessity. That is just how Humphreys' 500 page Veterinary Manual will prove so valuable to you. It is by F. Humphreys, M.D., V.M., and teaches how to diagnose and give proper treatment. This book will save you hundreds of dollars and cost you nothing. It will be sent absolutely free on request to any farmer in order to introduce it to you. Remember, it is absolutely free. You do not have to order any remedies to secure the book. Address, Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine Company, 156 William Street, New York City. This is a splendid opportunity to obtain a veterinary treatise that you should have in your library. As a reference work you will find it invaluable. To have it in the time of need will be worth many dollars, whereas it will cost you but a cent by writing for it now.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD.

DePAUW NEWS

(From Thursday's DePauw Daily.)

JACK GRIM ON DECK; FORTY DIAMONDITES, AND THE LID IS OFF!

Jack Grim, who was recently appointed baseball coach for the coming season by the Alumni Athletic Board, took charge of the forty candidates who reported for practice at the gymnasium this afternoon.

"No Partiality," says Coach. In a talk, which was filled with characteristic "pep" and enthusiasm, Coach Grim clearly stated his plans and policy to the baseball men this afternoon. "Every man here has a chance to make this team," he said. "Absolutely no partiality will be shown and the man with the ability who shows that he is in the game every second will win a place on the team. Every one of you will be treated right and given fair opportunity to show what you are made of." Both Manager Ellis and Capt. Bridges gave a short talk urging the men to keep training.

Squad Split in Sections.
The men were divided into sections for indoor work in the gymnasium. Particular attention is to be paid to the batteries during the first few weeks of practice, although the other men are also to be given frequent work-outs. A light practice characterized by lots of "pepper" was held in the gymnasium immediately following the organization of the men into classes.

Grim No Novice.
Coach Grim has had a long career as player, manager and coach. Thirteen of his twenty-three years of services have been spent as a player in the major leagues. He was for several years a catcher with the Brooklyn Nationals. In 1902 he managed the Columbus team and later served in the same capacity at Marion, Ind., and at Newark, O.

During the season of 1911 Grim coached the DePauw team and although taking charge of the team when a record of six defeats out of seven games played stood against the school, he developed a team that later in the season defeated Indiana as well as many of the other strong teams of the state.

GOBIN IN CHAPEL TELLS OF BISHOP'S CHARACTERISTICS

At chapel this morning Dr. Gobin made a short talk on the characteristics of the late Bishop Bowman and told of several incidents in the life of the Bishop.

One of the noticeable characteristics was his love for children. Dr. Gobin mentioned several incidents in his experience that illustrated this. He also spoke of Bishop Bowman's integrity and conscientiousness.

Dr. Gobin had known Bishop Bowman for many years and was probably better acquainted with him than any one else around the college. He was in old Asbury College when Bowman was president of the institution.

BARNES RE-APPOINTED EXAMINER IN ENGLISH

Prof. N. W. Barnes has been re-appointed as examiner in English on the College Entrance Examination Board of the Eastern States.

Miss Irene Taylor lead the regular meeting of the Young Woman's Christian Association this afternoon. Her subject was, "The Secret of Contentment." Special music was rendered by Miss Florence Bishop.

Annual Theta Dance.

The annual state dance of Kappa Alpha Theta will be held at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis next Saturday evening. All the chapters in the state are expecting to send a large number of their members.

Entertain Delegate.

Miss Aleda Vail, a visiting delegate of the Alpha Phi sorority, is making an official visit to the local chapter. A reception for Miss Vail had been planned for Thursday evening but it became necessary to withdraw the invitation because of the death of Bishop Bowman. Invitations had been issued to all the local sororities and to the members of the faculty.

Miss Vail will be in Greencastle for about a week.

Miss Margaret Harvey leaves tomorrow afternoon for Purdue, where she will attend a Phi Delta house party.

JEWETT CANDIDATE FOR MARION COUNTY G. O. P. COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

Charles W. Jewett, president of the Alumni Athletic Board of DePauw, has announced that he will be a candidate for chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Marion county. The election of the county chairman will be by the precinct committeemen of the county in convention March 13.

The following is taken from the Indianapolis News of Tuesday, March 3:

"United effort on the part of a large number of prominent Republicans and Progressives to bring the two wings of the party together in Marion county is being made at this time. Mr. Jewett has been urged for several weeks to enter the campaign by Republicans and Progressives who feel that he would be a strong force in uniting all factions of the party for the coming campaign. He has lived in Marion county for many years and has been active party worker. During the last general election, he did effective work, both in his ward and throughout the county, devoting much time to campaign speaking and organization work. As secretary of the Republican Union he has made many friends among party workers of the county and, through that organization, has done much to formulate plans and policies for reuniting the Republicans of Marion county. Mr. Jewett is engaged in the practice of law in Indianapolis."

SWEET FINDS OLD FILES IN LIBRARY

Dr. Sweet, in looking over some old books in the library, found a file of the Western Christian Advocate in bound volumes dating back to the founding of the paper in 1834. With one or two missing numbers we have a complete file from that date until the present time. Three volumes of the Indiana Sentinel dating from 1840 and a volume of famous portraits which had been stored away were also brought out.

The Western Christian Advocate file is perhaps the only one of its kind in this part of the country. It gives a complete record of the church from its early date and in one of the earliest volumes is given an account of the founding of DePauw, then Asbury College.

DePauw library is becoming famous for its old records. Indiana University will send a man here in a few days to investigate these old records of the church and material found in these will be used in his thesis for graduation.

The volume of portraits will be placed in a case in their regular order to be used as reference. They represent former presidents and leading statesmen of the United States.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

To have a talent for marrying and to have a talent for marriage are two totally different things.

After a girl has tried every other way to get a proposal and failed, she takes to standing at the side door with her sleeves rolled up and an apron on.

She is indeed a clever woman if she is too clever to show it.

It is difficult for a woman to enact the dual role of soul mate and help-mate.

Some men are modest enough to admit that they only know everything worth knowing.

By inducing a man to run for office a woman can discover his faults with out marrying him.

Only about one girl in a hundred can hit what she aims at when she throws herself at a man's head.

AMUSEMENTS.

Thousands of readers all over the country laughed and cried over the little story of "Daddy Long Legs" printed in the Ladies' Home Journal last year. It was acknowledged by everyone to be one of the best stories that has appeared in years with its pathetic story of the joys and sorrows of the little waif who had spent her early years in an orphan asylum. Mr. Henry Miller was attracted by the unusual story and decided to make a stage production of it with Miss Ruth Chatterton in the leading role. That she will do it full justice is assured by remembrance of her work in support of Mr. Miller the past few years, and it is said that the play has been a decided success. It will visit English's Opera House, Indianapolis, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 9-10-11th, with a matinee on Wednesday.

Gracious little Christa MacDonald, whose name never has been identified with any musical work that did not prove to be a delight to her hearers, will come to English's Opera House, Indianapolis, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 12-13-14th, with matinee Saturday in "Sweethearts," a new comic opera that New York raved over for a full season and Chicago acclaimed the best in years. Victor Herbert composed the score and it is said to be the best of all his operas; the story is by Harry B. and Robert B. Smith and Fred deGresac, and has been taken from a gay Flemish fairy tale. Around the humorous incidents Victor Herbert has woven waltzes of sentiment and red-blood, marches that set the toe a-tapping, and comedy numbers that are as rich in the humor of melody as are the lyrics that accompany them. Victor Herbert, himself, has proclaimed the cast of this opera "the best light opera organization in a generation." In support of Miss MacDonald there are Tom McNaughton, who has made for himself a position as the foremost "funny man" of the stage with what are considered even greater opportunities than he had in "The Spring Maid," Lionel Walsh, another English comedian of laughmaking reputation, Frank Belcher, Carl Gantvoort, Robert Connor, Edwin Wilson, Ethel due Fred Houston, Eleanor Henry, Gene Pelter, Nella McCoy, Gretchen Hartman, Cecelia Hoffman and Gertrude Rudd. There is a large chorus and an augmented orchestra.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

TO KEEP RAISINS FROM SINKING
To keep raisins from sinking when put in cake: If you use the seeded ones break apart after they have been taken from the package and pour boiling water over them. Leave them in the water for two or three minutes and be sure no sediment comes up with them. Fixed this way they never sink.

BAKED EGG PLANT.
To bake egg plant drop a good sized one into boiling water for 10 minutes, then drain. Halve, and from each piece scoop out the center, leaving a shell almost an inch thick. Chop the portion removed, season well with salt, pepper, onion juice and, if liked, chopped green pepper; add an equal amount of soft bread crumbs and moisten well with melted butter. Heap this in the shells and bake in a moderate oven for three-quarters of an hour.

Donald's Cap

"Where's grandpa?" called an excited little voice at the front door. "Papa and I have come to take him driving, and papa's holding the horses."

Grandmother smiled over her glasses. "You'll find grandpa in the library, Donald," she said, and, as the chubby little figure trudged along toward the library door, Aunt Bess called after him.

"Off in the house, Don, if you want to be my pet nevy!"

A minute later Donald came back into the sitting-room with grandpa's tall silk hat on his head, and it had slipped down over his eyes and nose until nothing but his red rosebud mouth was in sight. But grandpa was close behind, and a minute later he had rescued his precious hat from Donald's head, and the two had started off together.

Donald's papa was waiting in the carriage. "That's right, come on! These horses don't like to stand!" he called, as they came out, and added: "Donald, you've left your cap in the house. Go back and get it." Donald's hands went up to his head. No cap there. So back into the house he went.

"Where's my cap, grandpa?" Grandmother did not know; but she went into the library with him, and lifted all the pillows on the couch, and looked under the couch, and under the chairs, and under the newspapers on the table, and in all the places where Donald's cap usually gets. She could not find it.

Out in the carriage Donald's papa was getting impatient. "It's strange they can't find that cap!" he muttered. "The boy wasn't in the house five minutes." And at last he gave the reins to grandpa, and went in to see about it himself.

"I don't 'member puttin' it anywhere at all, papa," Donald said. "That's the trouble—he never does remember!" his papa said finally. "I told him yesterday that the next time he lost his cap he'd stay at home from the place he was going, and that means this drive. Father and I will go without him. This is the only way to teach him. But, if he finds his cap before we come back, I'll take him a little drive then." And Donald's papa jumped into the carriage beside grandpa and drove off.

Donald sat on the front steps, looking after them, a miserable little heap of disappointment. Two big tears were rolling down his cheeks. It was a beautiful, sunny Saturday afternoon, and he had been promised this drive all the week! Oh, dear—and, oh, dear! Where could that old cap be?

It was two hours before the carriage drove up again.

"Have you found your cap?" called papa.

Donald shook his head hopelessly, and Aunt Bess answered: "Found it! We've turned this house inside out since you went away; and, if I didn't remember telling him to take it off when he came in, I should know positively that you brought him here bareheaded!"

While she was speaking, grandpa had climbed out of the carriage, and now, as he came up the steps, he took off his own high hat and put it on Donald's curly head. "There, sir!" he said. "If you can't find your hat, you may have mine!"

It was only a joke, of course, for grandpa's hat really was very careful of his shiny silk hat; but, as he lifted it from Donald's again, Aunt Bess cried out, "Look there!"

"Well!" said grandpa.

"I never!" said grandmother. For there, on top of Donald's curls, was the missing cap!

By that time papa had tied the horses and was coming up the steps. "Where did that cap come from?" he demanded, and they all stared at each other without a word.

Donald spoke first. "I know!" he cried. "It came out of the top of grandpa's hat!"

"It must have stuck there when he had on my hat before!" added grandpa.

"Now, papa," Donald said then, "I couldn't find my cap 'fore you come back, 'cause you an' grandpa had it wiv you in the carriage."

Papa burst out laughing at that. "Come on, father!" he cried. "There's time yet for a good spin round the park before dinner, and I think I owe this drive!"

Taming the Animals.
A bright but inexperienced young woman consented to take charge of the boy infant class. She found them jumping from the tops of the steam radiators. Fifteen minutes later the superintendent found fourteen meek masculine "infants" seated sedately in a tightly squeezed room before the teacher, every eye fixed inquiringly on the lady's bright countenance. "How in the world did you accomplish this?" demanded the astonished superintendent. "Oh," she replied, "I just piled all I couldn't get my arms round in a heap on the bench and sat on them until I got them interested in a bear story."—Youth's Companion.

A New Kind of Top.

It is Made Out of an Apple and a Skewer.

John came into the room where I was sewing and sat down on the couch with a pout. "A fellow can't have any fun on a rainy day. All the boys in this pokey town are afraid a little rain will melt them. As if they were made of sugar? Stuff and nonsense!"

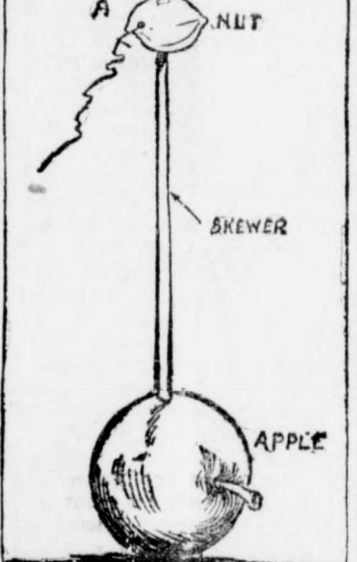

"Stuff and nonsense, indeed!" I exclaimed. "Can't you content yourself at home for a while?"

"What's a fellow to do? I say, ma, can I have some apples and nuts? I saw some on the sideboard."

"Yes, and after you have eaten your fill I'll show you how to make a new kind of top. One that you can spin on a rainy day."

John shouted "Hurrah!" and ran to the dining room for the goodies.

When he was ready for the top, I said: "Bore a hole in a nut, just large enough to pass a thin skewer through;

The Top Complete.

The kernel should then be extracted, and another hole bored in the side of the nut, as A in the picture. A skewer should next be cut or thinned, leaving it large enough at the top to form a head, as shown in the cut. A piece of string is then to be tied to the skewer, and passed through the hole in the side of the nut at A, and an apple stuck on the end of the skewer. The top being now complete in all its works, it should be twirled round in the same manner as the humming top to wind up the string, holding the nut stationary between the forefinger and thumb of the left hand; when this is done, the string must be pulled out quickly, and the top will spin round."

A Stiff Yarn.
Secretary Cortelyou tells of an Englishman who was out West in his early days and fell in with a long train of prairie schooners. The leader of the caravan, according to The Buffalo Commercial, "announced that he and his fellow emigrants were going to found a town, having everything that was needed and no thing that was unnecessary. 'We won't have any waste,' he said. 'There isn't a person in our party who won't do some important duty in the new town.' The Englishman pointed to an old and feeble man, with a bent back and a long, thin, white beard. 'But that very old man there,' he said, 'he can't possibly be of any use to you, can he?' 'Oh, yes,' said the leader. 'We open our new cemetery with him.'"

Tall Tales Were Told But Tom Ochiltree's Won.

Among the anecdotes of the late Colonel Tom Ochiltree which are floating through the papers just now, the following is probably the best.

Once upon a time he upset Lord Lonsdale, when that Englishman was entertained here on his way home from an expedition to Alaska. His lordship was regarded by some as his admirer as a wonderful explorer. He was quite a lion. A dinner was given in his honor by Herrman Ochiltree.

Well, Lord Lonsdale told many thrilling stories, and an audible "oh!" went around the table when he finished telling of a petrified forest in Africa, in which he found a number of petrified lions and elephants. As the Englishman lapsed into silence and the applause sank to an echo, all looked to Colonel Ochiltree to defend his nationality and beat this petrified lion story.

"Texas," said the Colonel, after a pause, has its petrified forest, but although they contain no petrified lions they are remarkable for having petrified birds flying over them."

"Nonsense!" said Lord Lonsdale; "that is impossible. Such a phenomenon is contrary to the laws of gravitation."

"Ah, that's easily explained," responded Colonel Ochiltree quickly. "The laws of gravitation down there are petrified, too."

The Pickersons had invited their very "swellest" friends, the Hathaways, to dinner and desired that the proper effect be produced. It was to be a dinner en famille and the Hathaways were asked to bring their two offspring to keep company with their heir, Reginald, aged six, of the Pickersons.

The dinner arrangements placed the three children at a small table in the corner of the dining room. The meal progressed finely, the Pickersons endeavoring by their conversation to impress the guests with the high standing of their intimates, and the Hathaways responding in kind.

Then into the conversation there commenced to drift the shrill argumentative voices of the youngsters in the corner. "My mother did this," and "Well, I guess my father can," etc.

Then there came at the large table one of those sudden, appalling silences that sometimes fall on such gatherings, and as it fell there burst in life-like tones from Reginald, the Pickersons' hopeful:

"Huh, that's nothin'. My pa he eat his whole dish of puddin' in two mouthfuls."

Coughs and colds are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold. If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers.

It was reported on the streets this afternoon that James Grogan of Lawrenceville, Ill., had been married in that city last Wednesday. Relatives of Mr. Grogan of this city were unable to substantiate the report. He is a former resident of this city and is well-known here.

After having served as postmaster of Cloverdale for the past sixteen years, Charley Rockwell on Wednesday, turned the office over to the management of Andrew V. McKamey, the Democratic appointee. Mr. McKamey will be assisted in the office by his daughter, Miss Lacie McKamey, who will serve as his deputy.

"George," the new fire department horse, which became sick soon after it was purchased and placed in service, is reported to be almost in perfect shape again. It is believed that the horse can be taken back to the department and placed in service next week. The horse has been kept in the barn at the home of Councilman George Dobbs since it has been sick.

The Nine O'Clock Tea Club of this city will have a fun and food festival this evening. The members of the club will meet at the furniture store of A. B. Hanna, where the business meeting will be held and several candidates for membership will be initiated. After the meeting a big feast will be spread at the McAnally Restaurant on the west side of the square. The club has a membership of about 200 and a large attendance is expected.

All of the officers and business rooms in the Donner building are without heat this week as the result of carelessness of the firemen, who fired up the furnace of the steam heating plant when there was no water in the boiler. Several sections of the boiler were burned out and it will take several days to repair the damage. The damage will amount to several hundred dollars. The steam heating plant was put in only a few months ago.

DEATH OF JAMES SINCLAIR OCCURRED LAST NIGHT

The death of James B. Sinclair occurred Thursday night at 10:30 o'clock at the home of his brother-in-law, Benjamin Turner, on west Washington street. The deceased was 48 years old. His death was caused by cancer of the stomach. The funeral will be held at the Putnamville M. E. church Saturday at 11 o'clock. Rev. L. D. Dodd will conduct the funeral services. The interment will be in the Putnamville cemetery.

The deceased has been ill for several months, but not until the last few days has his condition been serious. When he was taken sick he was removed from his home on west Franklin street to the home of his brother-in-law, Benjamin Turner, on Washington street. Mr. Sinclair is survived by a widow.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. LOUISA J. HUTCHISON

The death of Mrs. Louisa J. Hutchison, one of the well-known and most respected residents of the county, occurred at her home near Hamrick Station Friday morning at 1:30 o'clock. Her death was caused from a complication of diseases. The deceased was 74 years old.

The funeral services will be held at the home near Hamrick Station Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. L. A. Beard, former pastor of the Christian church of this city, of which the deceased was a life-long member. The interment will be in the Hutchison cemetery near Hamrick Station.

Mrs. Hutchison was born in Jefferson county, Kentucky, April 12, 1840, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bence. With her parents, she moved to Putnam county when she was 12 years old, and settled on a farm in Washington township.

After her marriage to Philip Hutchison, she lived on a farm near Hamrick Station until her death. The death of Mr. Hutchison preceded that of his wife three years.

Mrs. Hutchison is survived by eight children, four daughters: Miss Izora Hutchison, Mrs. Luther Easter, Mrs. Fred Stoner and Mrs. Frank Daggy, and four sons: Dr. W. R. Hutchison, of this city; Daniel Hutchison, Phillip Hutchison, and Charles Hutchison, who reside in Washington township.

A peculiar coincidence marked the death of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison. Mr. and Mrs. David Houck, who were for many years neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison in Washington township. The death of Mr. Hutchison occurred three years ago and was closely followed by the death of Mr. Houck. The death of Mrs. Houck and Mrs. Hutchison came within only a few days of each other. Mrs. Houck passed away last Thursday.

The Player Piano To BUY

The value of a Player Piano is in its ability to express music your way.

In the Manualo the power of expression is built into the instrument from the ground work up. It is an essential part of the player and through it you are able to get all the effects of hand playing—it plays the piano your way.

The Manualo pedals so lightly you are not conscious of any physical exercise.

This is because of the short rounded air passages which make the air fingers practically in direct connection with the pedaling.

There is an evenness of tone in the Manualo not found in any other player.

This is because of the graduated pneumatics each pneumatic being in size and power according to the size of the piano string and the hammer striking it.

The Manualo is Found Only in the Baldwin Line of Pianos.
